

COUNTY SCHOOLS OF AGRICULTURE

Patten Bill Passed in the Senate Today with No Opposition.

KILL SWEATSHOP BILL.

Bicycle Side-Path Bill Advanced to Third Reading in the Senate.

MONEY FOR GOOD ROADS

Madison, Wis., April 19.—The Patton bill providing for the establishment of county schools of agriculture and domestic economics, half the cost of instruction to be paid by the state, passed the senate without opposition today.

The Soltwedde sweatshop bill was non-concurred in as also was the bill providing punishment for the administering of knock-out drops.

The bicycle side path bill was passed by the senate after a long struggle was advanced to third reading in the senate today without opposition.

The bill authorizing counties to appropriate money for good roads also went to third reading.

The resolution fixing the date for final adjourning May 4 reconsidered last evening was laid over until next Tuesday.

Both houses adjourned until Monday evening.

NEW PRIMARY ELECTION BILL.

Includes Cities and Legislative Districts.—Senate Will Not Accept.

Madison, Wis., April 19.—The assembly committee on privileges and elections has practically decided upon the substitute for the Hagemaster bill and expects to be able to report it on Monday night. It will include cities and legislative districts. The only matter still in doubt it is said is the referendum.

The committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon, discussed the matter at length, but did not take any formal action. The members submitted their several propositions and they were discussed by the full committee. After the meeting, one of the committeemen said that several plans had been offered but none definitely decided upon, but it was safe to say that the substitute would include cities and legislative districts. The question of referring the matter to the people and making its adoption optional was the only thing, he said, upon which there was much difference of opinion.
The committee would meet again this afternoon and decide that.

Limits Pool Selling.
Mr. Rossman's pool selling bill is still before the committee on agriculture and is fighting hard for life with the chances against it. The members of the committee do not look with favor on the measure in even its moderate form and have decided to either kill the bill or to report it without recommendation. The bill is one that in no manner could affect the general public and would deal directly with horse owners. It limits the time of selling pools to ten days and provides that bets shall be made by the owners of horses that are racing.

Women and children are positively forbidden to be in the betting ring.
To Adjourn May 11.

The resolution adopted yesterday afternoon fixing on May 4 as the final adjournment will no doubt be reconsidered today and changed to May 11.
It is believed that if the assembly does not delay the primary election bill things can be pretty thoroughly cleaned up by May 11, and there will be no good reason for calling an extra session.

The Legislative Ball.
The legislative ball in the big university gymnasium last night, was one of the most brilliant and successful social functions ever held in Madison. The prettily decorated "gym."
000 persons present and only a few
000 persons present and only a few were students. The affair differed considerably from former functions of this kind, in that it was almost exclusively of a legislative character, more of the 133 members of the legislature attending than any previous year. All of the state officers and their wives were present.

A Defaulting Bank Keeper.
Pittsburg, April 19.—A. C. Schroth,
First National Bank of Birmingham (south side Pittsburg) was arrested this morning charged with a default-ation of $34,999.96. He was released on ten thousand dollars' bail.

PROMISES TO BE AN EXCITING EVENT

League Declamatory Contest Will Be Held at the High School Building Tonight

The league declamatory contest is to be held at the high school building this evening and present indications are that it will be an exciting event.
Supt. Mayne has received a letter from Supt. Buell stating that the Whitewater high school will be represented by a delegation over one hundred strong. Supt. Converse of Beloit will bring a large delegation from his city and the Evansville high school will send a party of students and teachers, headed by Principal Kling. Each delegation will include the three contestants who are to compete for honors with each other and with the representatives of the Janesville high school.

Some of the visitors arrived in the city on the early morning trains and the gay streamers and banners which they carried attracted considerable attention. Each of the delegates comes prepared to cheer its contestant on to victory, but as only two representatives are to be chosen to appear in the district contest it is quite certain that some of the enthusiasts will be disappointed.

Owing to the length of the program the contest will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Those who attend are requested to be in their seats promptly at that time.

BOERS AMBUSH A PARTY OF LANCERS

London, April 19.—Lord Kitchener reports a British disaster today. He says in a dispatch from Pretoria:
"I regret to report that a party of the Ninth Lancers was ambushed by the enemy and Lieut. MacDonald and three men killed and five wounded."

Cape Town, April 19.—The Boers are still besieging Zeerust in the western Transvaal, not far from Mafeking.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR; HE WANTS TO REDUCE EXPENSES

Recommends Reduction in the Forces at the Capitol and State Departments—It Will Amount to a Biennial Saving of $36,000.

Madison, Wis., April 19.—Governor La Follette sent a message to the legislature today recommending reductions in the forces at the capitol and state departments by which the governor says he is convinced a biennial reduction of $36,000 can be made in state expenditures without harm to any public interest or loss in public service.

Briefly the governor's recommendations are: The abolishment of the state board of immigration, $5, 000 a year; requiring that the regular force at the land office shall attend to land protection for the public lands, saving $4,000 annually; abolishment of the offices of state draught-man, a volunteer service clerk in the Adjutant General's office, saving $1, 200 a year each; and cutting off from the department of superintendents of public property the storekeeper, foreman of labor force and reduction of janitors from eighteen to twelve, saving $6,108 more annually.

The governor asks that the legislature take action on these resolutions before final adjournment.

Governor La Follette today re-appointed David A. Taylor of Stevens Point, a member of the state board of pharmacy.

WILL REDUCE THE PHILIPPINE ARMY

President Has Ordered General MacArthur to Bring His Force Down 40,000 Men at Once

Washington, D. C., April 19.—Convincing proof that the administration believes that the insurrection in the Philippines is at an end is furnished by an order sent today by Secretary Root to General MacArthur directing the latter to reduce the strength of the army in the archipelago to 40,000 men. This reduction will be made immediately, and is the direct result of the capture of Aguinaldo, the surrender of those who bore arms against the United States, and the general improvement of the condition in the Philippines.

The reduction of the force in Uncle Sam's far eastern possessions will result in a corresponding decrease in the number of enlistments in the regular army, and the total strength of the organization is not likely to exceed 60,000 men.

The instructions to General Mac-Arthur direct that five regiments of regulars, three of infantry and one each of cavalry and artillery be sent to the United States with the returning volunteers. The regulars ordered home are the Fourteenth, Eighteenth, and the Twenty-third infantry, the Fourth artillery and the Fourth cavalry.

In addition to this instructions have been sent to the recruiting stations and military posts throughout the country that no more of the newly recruited regiments will be sent to the Philippines except to relieve organizations which have served in the archipelago for two or more years.

The new troops will be retained in this country on garrison duty until their services are required elsewhere.

Secretary Root has also decided that no more Filipino troops will be enlisted and that those already in the service will be mustered out.

MACHINERY MEN IN GREAT COMBINE

Five of the Largest Stationary Engine Plants in the Country Will Be Consolidated.

Milwaukee, April 19.—The five largest stationary engine manufacturing companies in the United States are to be consolidated into one gigantic combine, with a capital of $25,000,000.
The E. P. Allis company of this city will head the list, and Charles Allis and W. W. Allis of this city will be president and chairman of the board of directors respectively, if the deal now pending is consummated. Charles Allis was in New York yesterday, in conference with the Wall Street operators who are back of the project.

The companies which are expected to be included in the new corporation are:
The E. P. Allis company of Milwaukee; the Pennsylvania Iron Works of Philadelphia; the Gates Iron Works company of Chicago; the Frazer & Chalmers company of Chicago, and the Dixon Manufacturing company of Scranton, Pa.

This is the information given out yesterday by representatives of the E. P. Allis company and is corroborated by dispatches from the east. It appears that the unwillingness of the Milwaukee company to turn over its property, gives rise to the only possible hitch in the negotiations. In order to win over this company, it will be given the two most important officers in the gift of the combine.
Whether even this most important concession will be sufficient to close the deal, is the question now to be decided.

The companies which are now to be included in the proposed combine are of world wide reputation. Though the E. P. Allis company is unquestion-ably the most important of the five, some of the others rank close to it in importance. It is said at the outset only these companies will be in the combine, but later on others may be absorbed.

HARRISON FOR PRESIDENT.

Washington Papers Believe They See in Him the Real Article.

Washington, April 19.—Chicago's mayor, now spending part of his vacation in this city, is greeted by the local newspapers as a possible candidate for president of the United States. They intimate that the nomination lies between Mayor Johnson of Cleveland and Mr. Harrison, and suggest that the Chicago man is here for the purpose of getting pointers on the management of the national government. Mayor Harrison's conversation indicated that he did not regard the talk of his candidacy as entirely dreamy. He said:
"I am not a candidate for president now." The strong emphasis he placed on the "now" implied that within the next two years presidential ambitions might assume larger proportions.

FRESH OUTBREAK BUBONIC PLAGUE

Vancouver, B. C., April 19.—Australian advices report a fresh outbreak of the bubonic plague in Brisbane and the other ports. It also appeared in the Dunwich insane asylum, Stradbroke Island, where thousands of patients are confined. Rats, it is believed have carried the disease.

J. FRANK ALDRICH MARRIES.

Miss Matilda Agan Weds Chicago Man at the Home of Her Parents.

New York, April 19.—The romance of marriage made on board the Congressional Limited Express culminated yesterday in the wedding of Miss Matilda Agan of this city to former Congressman J. Frank Aldrich of Chicago. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. David H. Agan, at No. 1,074
Lexington avenue.

Miss Agan went to Washington last month to attend the inauguration of President McKinley. The young woman and her mother were the guests of honor. The joys also entertained of Congressman and Mrs. Joy of Missouri. Mr. Aldrich, Miss Agan and Mr.
Aldrich returned to New York on the same train and the proposal was made and accepted between stations. The engagement was announced March 15.
At that time Miss Agan said:

"We have known each other less than two weeks, but we are sure we have taken the right step."

Mrs. Aldrich is a tall, handsome brunette. She has much taste in music and has a rich contralto voice.
A wedding breakfast was served at the Agan home. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich left for Atlanta.

GRAVEL BALLAST FOR THE NEW ROAD

One Month More Will Put the Janesville & Southeastern in Shape to Carry Fast Trains.

The Janesville and Southeastern railroad has completed its work in the cuts at Snipe Hill and the large steam shovel has been taken to the big cut on the Wheeler place, where the best quality of gravel can be secured.

The gravel trains will all be loaded at this pit and distributed along the line. A month more will see the road in first class shape the entire distance between here and Chicago. They will make the run from Janesville to Chicago, a distance of a fraction over 99 miles in about two hours.
A speed of about a mile a minute will have to be maintained between stations to make the run in two hours.
The Northwestern people have a more direct line it being some eight miles shorter than the new line. They claim to be able to reduce the running time to less than two hours and thus still retain their prestige with the traveling public. In any event the people will get the benefit of the efforts of the two roads to make fast runs to the city.

If one of the roads or both of them could be induced to reduce the fare, the people would get more benefit than they would by the reduction of running time.

READY FOR BIG BASS SEASON.

Fishermen Count on Unusually Good Sport at Lake Geneva.

Lake Geneva, Wis., April 19.—Decatur Walker, the fish oracle of this lake is getting ready for a big bass season. Walker has a record of having taken 800 fine bass on Lake Geneva last year and he expects to make it a thousand this season. There is no closed season on Lake Geneva, and anyone may fish whenever the spirit moves him. Chicagoans are already making their appearance at their palatial summer homes and are seen to be getting out their tackle. The weather and the lake are rapidly becoming of the proper temperature. The ice disappeared on April 10. Fishing in any lake or stream in Wisconsin is not permitted before May 25, excepting Lake Geneva and Rush Lake, so these two favored localities are sure to have an influx with the first warm sunshine and rain.

TARIFF ON SUGAR AND COAL

London, April 19.—The most disastrous statement ever made by a British chancellor of the exchequer was presented by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach to the house of commons. He said that the country was on the verge of ruin. He made the startling announcement that the war against the small Boer nation had cost $775,000,000, double the expenses of the Crimean war.
He showed the enormous deficit of $205,000,000 and asked for powers to borrow $300,000,000 immediately by means of consols in order to finance the exchequer. The remarks of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach were greeted with rousing cheers by the opposition, which hopes that the budget statement will lead to a subjection of the jingo element and a check to the martial policy of the government. The chancellor said that $77,165,000 had been paid out of the revenue for the cost of the war, while the total amount provided by the state last year aggregated the gigantic sum of $991,730,000.
Sir William Vernon Harcourt, after complimenting the chancellor on the honesty displayed in the long budget statement, which consumed two and a half hours, said that the budget statement was but a chapter in the disastrous incidents of the war. He pointed out that it was proposed to borrow four times as much as was borrowed for the Crimean war. He argued that England today was not as strong as she was at the close of the French war.

Details of the Budget.

The budget adds 2d to the income tax, making it 1s 2d. It does not provide an increase in the duties on beer, wine or tea, spirits or tobacco. A duty of 4s 2d per hundredweight will be imposed on refined sugar. West Indian sugar is not excepted. A duty of 2s per hundredweight is imposed on molasses. A duty of 1s 8d per hun-dredweight is imposed on glucose. A shilling per ton duty is imposed on exported coal. Raw sugar polarizing below 98 is to pay a duty gradually diminishing, according to each degree of polarization, to a minimum of two shillings at a polarization of 76. The total expected yield of the new taxation is £11,000,000, of which £2,000,- 000 will be from coal.

Tells Nation the Truth.

The chancellor of the exchequer sketched the situation in hard, pitiless outlines. "I aim at no transient popularity," he said. "I ask for no cheers and I expect none. I come to tell the nation the truth and the whole truth.
It is necessary for the salvation of the nation that I should do so. You have had your feast. You have all liberals and Tories, been mad for rioting and expenditure. Now comes the reckoning, and you may laugh or not as you please."

$25 Reward.

The city of Janesville will pay twenty-five dollars reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who turned in the alarm of fire from box 42 at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening, April 18, 1901.

BELOIT IS IN A DREADFUL SCARE; AFRAID CLOUGH HAS HAD ENOUGH

Electric Railway Magnate Says Council Must Come to His Terms—Chances That City Fathers Will Agree to Ordinance, Monday Night.

Beloit, Wis., April 19.—Now that Mr. Clough has Beloit in his pocket the merchants will be obliged to give up their demands for urban tracks and service, but the workmen will see to it that they get their line to Janesville.

The whole thing is up to the council now and if it is possible for merchants and workmen to get together there should be no delay in bringing about this harmony.

The elimination of all urban roads will probably mean the selection of a route up Fourth street. This is the sentiment expressed by several aldermen.

The workmen were to have held a meeting last night to conclude action on their independent plans. They wish no harm to Beloit however. The latest is that an amicable understanding has been reached; that the council will pass the franchise Monday night such as Mr. Clough has declared was practicable; one that is not all that Beloit would desire but one that will be of great advantage to the city nevertheless. In that event the workmen will drop their proposed action in favor of a better way that promises to rebuild the city.

The News yesterday prints the following letter from an Ohio. capitalist to a friend in this city:

"We feel that we have done our whole duty in Beloit. The council still have an opportunity, if they want to avail themselves of the chance of securing the road. As to the Fourth street route, if they will open that street so we can get to the river we see many advantages both to the city and ourselves in that route, and we think it harmonizes geographical differences. You know what Janesville has promised to do. This looks very tempting to our people here and a number of them believe, when taking freight into account, that the best route is around the city of Beloit and locating the powerhouse at Janesville, and especially when the line is extended to Madison, which is seriously contemplated. It is, from a strictly business standpoint, a wise thing to do. However, one of our number Mr. Clough—personally feels disposed to treat Beloit fairly and if the council get around by next Monday night and advise us what we can expect, Mr. Clough will still do his best to make Beloit the center of the road. We hardly think Mr.
Clough can reach you before Monday noon."

ATHLETIC EVENT AT HIGH SCHOOL

Open Session of the Physical Culture Classes Given Under the Direction of Mrs. J. B. Day.

One of the largest audiences ever assembled in the high school gymnasium for an athletic event witnessed the open session of the physical culture classes given under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Day, who has conducted the work during the winter.

Twenty-four young ladies participated in the exhibition. The members of the class and their teacher all wore gymnasium suits of dark blue blouses and bloomers. The costumes were brightened by bows of red ribbon in the hair and at the closing of the sailor collars with which the blouses were adorned.

The exercises began promptly at eight o'clock with a figure march which was so well executed that the various figures were frequently applauded. At the close of the march the young ladies formed in lines across the gymnasium and gave a series of relaxing and energizing exercises for head, shoulders, body and limbs.

A dumb bell drill was one of the most attractive features of the exhibition and a fancy step march was a novelty which was much enjoyed by the spectators. The second series of free hand movements, Swedish gymnastics and Delsarte exercises was probably the best featured program. The work done was quite well advanced and excited frequent applause.

A ball drill was one of the most difficult exercises attempted and being unused to working against the electric lights, some of the young ladies became confused and several balls were lost. It was a pretty drill, however, and the audience enjoyed it thoroughly. The program concluded with a recreative exercise, the class being divided into two sides. The exercise consisted of a bean bag contest in which the result depended upon accuracy in passing the bags. The contest was decided by two out of three games and the side captained by Miss Holloway was declared the winner.

The exhibition was a complete novelty in the entertainment line and was much enjoyed. Few people can realize the real value of the work however unless they have attempted something of the kind themselves. Even the simplest of the exercises showed control over muscles which are practically useless unless given exercise and the majority of people would find themselves unable to do without practice the things which seemed most easily done last evening. Another value of the exhibition was that it was not done by a picked gymnasium team but was a regular session of class work.

During the evening Mrs. Day was presented with a beautiful bouquet of red carnations, tied with long red ribbons, a tribute of appreciation from the class. To Mrs. Day and the members of her class the School Art Auxiliary is indebted for a neat little sum which will be added to the fund for the purchasing of pictures for the schools.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

In that charming musical comedy, "Papa's Wife," which played for over 200 nights in New York at the Manhattan Theatre last season and has been playing to extended engagements in all the large cities this season comes to the Myers Grand, Friday, April 26. Papa's Wife is a collaboration founded upon two French vaudevilles by Henry B. Smith and Reginald De Koven, who are responsible for many well known operas including "Robin Hood." Miss Held possesses all the youthful charm and radiant beauty desired. Her creation of "Anna" is one that not only requires versatility but brings to bear a great amount of tact and delicacy in its delineation. As the convent pupil on her bridal tour who passes through many lively experiences she lesquers will be at the opera house Saturday night, April 20. The burlesquers are entitled "The Woldorf Castoria" and the "Wayside Inn." The olio will be headed by Robert J. Conwell, eccentric back dancer, followed by Mille Ocattee, singing and dancing comedienne. The Behan trio, novelty and comedy singing and musical act. The Colton comedy duo and Dave Morrissey and Harry Belmont, in "The Battle of Santiago."

Jule Walters and Louise Llewellyn will appear at the Myers Grand this evening in that very funny comedy, "Side Tracked." This play has been most wonderfully successful, and there is good reason for it, instead of going out every season with the same lines, the same scenery, the same Fire Department Troubles.

Chief Spencer is getting very tired of having fire alarm box 42, at the corner of Lincoln and Holmes street pulled by some party anxious to see how long it takes the department to get to the box after the alarm is turned in. Last night was the second time within a week this box has been pulled and it will go hard with the ones doing the mischief if they are caught.

Parties take long chances when an alarm is turned in trying to keep in front of the department wagons. Last night a party in a single buggy kept in front of the patrol wagon and Driver Murphy had to slack up twice and once went into the ditch to keep from striking the buggy. People not only take chances of having their rigs smashed and being badly hurt but hinder the department by trying to keep in front of them. If some one gets smashed up in this sort of a thing they should not blame the department.

My heart and hand another claimed, His plea had come too late.

UNION.

Union, April 19.—The old adage has it "The early bird catches the worm," but if this weather continues the early bird will catch cold.

A bright baby boy came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Stuart last Tuesday, the 16th, and scarcely ever could a wee one find a more appreciative home. Mother and babe are both doing well.

The neat little property, consisting of house, barn and a half acre of ground, lately owned and occupied by Harvey Berry was purchased and presented to Mrs. N. C. Strong as a birthday present by her daughters, Mrs. Mrs. Frank Tolles and Mrs. E. Patterson. It is now undergoing a thorough renovation and will be ready for occupancy the coming week.

Miss Blanche Brigham was in our vicinity last Thursday instructing her class in music. She returned to her home in Madison on the day following.

Mrs. M. A. Putman who has been quite ill for the past three weeks is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns have come to reside in our midst and occupy the place where Mr. Jas. Hurst recently resided.

School has opened with a good attendance under the tutelage of Miss Irma Shaw of Evansville.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spence was quite ill last week but promises to recover at this writing.

LEYDEN.

Leyden April 19.—The weather is cool and farmers are busy plowing and sowing small grain.

Walter Tabin is able to be out again after nearly two weeks confinement with la grippe.

Fred Gentz is stripping tobacco. He has not sold his crop yet. Walter Stickney is working for Fred Gentz.

Will Conway is working for Walter Tobin.

Ole Olson is working for Henry Harock.

Walter Little is attending school.

A few improvements are noticeable at Leyden each week and if business continues to pick up at the stores as fast in the next few months as in a short time back a new depot and a village will soon be in order. A number of barns are being brought to Leyden to be used as cisterns. D. Knapp of Janesville is selling them.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

GIVE PERFECT DIGESTION, SOUND SLEEP, STRONG NERVES.

A Popular Remedy for Dyspepsia Which has made many Remarkable Cures.

The spring of the year is the time for blood purifiers. It is the season when we think we must dose with sarsaparillas, bitters and the endless list of so-called blood purifiers and nerve tonics.

As a matter of fact, there is but one possible way in which to purify the blood and that is through the stomach and bowels.

The blood results from wholesome food thoroughly digested. Impure blood results from poor digestion and assimilation. When the stomach refuses to work properly the food remains too long a time, fermenting, forming gases, shown by sour, bitter taste in the mouth, bloating and belching of gas, and distress and discomfort generally. Poor blood, weak nerves, sleeplessness and a general don't care feeling can always be traced to imperfect digestion.

This is the reason why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are superior to all other spring medicines and blood purifiers. They give perfect digestion, the food does not lie in the stomach for hours. They give a vigorous appetite, sound sleep, strong nerves, and wholesome food well digested makes pure blood, and in no other way can the blood be purified. The idea that a medicine, in itself, will purify the blood when the stomach and digestive organs are out of order is nonsense. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used by thousands in preference to "bitters," "after dinner pills" and "blood purifiers" because they remove the cause of the impure blood, and you do not have to take them forever to get results. Dyspepsia is an obstinate disease to cure and a remedy must be designed especially for it and nothing else. Cure-alls will not cure dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not claimed to cure everything or anything except dyspepsia and stomach troubles and for that it stands alone suffering from any trouble with their digestion will find these tablets will give immediate relief and a permanent cure.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are prepared by F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. No dieting or change of habits is required, they digest the food.

Mr. H. F. Nott, agent for the Hardman Piano, has received the following testimonial from one of his customers:

"Dear Sir:—In 1874 my parents purchased a Concert Square Hardman Piano. This instrument is still in my possession, having been in constant use for my own practice and in teaching during the past 27 years. It has never required repairs and although in the early years we kept it frequently tuned it is now five years since it has been tuned and is in good condition, with clear, soft musical tone and good touch. I have known several Hardmans and have yet to see one which failed in quality or durability. Witnessing the Hardman every success, I remain its friend."

CLINTON.

Clinton, April 19.—The funeral of the late John W. Stoney was held at the house on the afternoon of the 11th. With the opening up of spring

BLOOD

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. It sets the whole body going again—man, woman and child.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

R & G CORSETS

NEVER STRETCH

The moderately straight R & G No. 397 was and is the corset of comfort with the essence of style. It is straight enough for the prevailing vogue and curved enough to conform to healthful anatomical lines. In 1900 we were unable to fully meet the demand for straight-front goods and unwilling to resort to any makeshift to meet the conditions. At present, however, considerable additions to our factory facilities enable us to keep the trade supplied with real straight-front corsets at retail prices from $1.00 to $2.50, and also our 397, 197, Empire and other popular numbers. There are over seventy styles and sizes of R & G Corsets—a corset to fit every figure. R & G Corsets are the corsets that do not stretch. Every hairbreadth of stretch is taken out of the goods by means of steam-heated iron forms. This gives a permanency to the right shape and form that will stay in it until the last day you wear it. Every R & G Corset is sold with the understanding that it must give satisfaction to the wearer, or the dealer will supply a new one free of cost. If your dealer hasn't it, send us his name and we will see that you are supplied with what you want.

How To Serve Dinner

AM now speaking to the family who keep only one servant and who wish nevertheless to have their simple meals served daintily. In the first place, quality and not quantity should be the rule. It is a rule which, unfortunately, is very little observed in America. Remember that it is better to have two dishes and have them well cooked than a dozen tasteless concoctions. Another thing, no matter whether there is company or not, the dinner should always be served in a correct manner, and then the advent of an unexpected guest or two will not cause such a stir in the household management.

The maid should wear a black dress, with white collar and cuffs and a crisp apron. An important rule for her to remember is to pass every dish to the left of the person waited on. When the family enters the dining room, the soup should be served ready at each plate. Two ladlefuls are sufficient, as

THE MAID PASSES THE VEGETABLES. The soup is merely a warm appetizer. The maid should pass the sliced bread. Butter is not usually served at dinner. After the soup has been removed the roast, together with a pile of hot plates, is placed before the head of the family, who proceeds to carve. The maid carries around each plate. There should be no handing over the table. Potatoes or rice and one other vegetable are sufficient. These are kept in covered dishes on the sideboard and passed around to each person by the maid. The vegetable dishes should never be left on the table, and there should be no such thing as the archipelago of little vegetable saucers so often seen in the houses of people who ought to know better. One side dish alone is permissible in the case of a creamed vegetable. When the table has been cleared, fresh plates are given, and the maid passes the salad in a glass or china bowl. This is already prepared, and it is eaten with bread or cold sliced meat. Pressed and jellied ham and chicken in fancy molds are pretty to serve when one has guests. After the salad has been removed a simple dessert is brought in little dishes, or it can be served on the table. This is followed by crackers and cheese and black coffee in small cups.

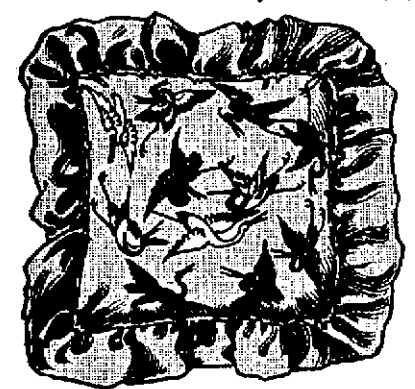

At all times during the meal the table presents a neat and attractive appearance, and all confusion in serving is avoided in this manner.

wings and body are roughly painted with touches of black and white to imitate the natural markings of the birds. The feathers and the crests are represented in black outline stitch.

This design could be equally well carried out in heavy linen materials. The pattern could be stamped or painted in colors and then simply worked in outline stitch.

ELABORATE GOWNS.

Ruffles Are Many, and There Is a Return to Second Empire Modes.

Just at the present moment fashion is showing some wonderful vagaries, and one feels more than exactly sees the points of departure. There are many small and some large signs which show the trend of the styles toward those in vogue during the first years of the reign of the Empress Eugenie in France. There are no hoops, to be sure, but the skirts are growing wider and not by small degrees. They are shirred around the hips, and the gathers are sewed to the bottom of the waist. The skirts are also much larger around and not so long in the center of the back. As to the material, it is anything one wishes and can afford. Some recent and elegant importations show skirts of all sorts of lace over silk, and nearly all of these have flounces of some kind, and we all know that flounces were the principal thing in the days of Eugenie. I noted in one large establishment a black dotted net overdress with four narrow flounces of black chiffon. It is astonishing to see how this material holds its popularity for dress trimming. The black net has at distances of half a yard stripes wrought in the pattern, and these run down to the flounces. Between these on each front side breadth are designs made of a handsome pattern of black chantilly. One row of the same heads the flounces. This skirt is made very ample, and the face overdress is gathered at the waist line. The waist is of the same material and has a black velvet belt and some small bows of the same at the shoulder and at the elbow, where the sleeve ends with a ruffle. The gown is lined with ivory white silk.

CREPE GOWN.

Another striking dress is made of deep red organdie. The skirt is very ample and is trimmed about half way down with a Dewey flounce, which in turn is ornamented with two ruffles, each three inches wide. Rows of narrow black lace are set along all the edges and down the rest of the skirt at intervals of three inches. The whole waist is shirred very closely in horizontal lines as far as the bust and perpendicularly on the yoke. This is finished with an old fashioned bertha of the organdie and edged with chiffon and lace. The sleeves end at the elbow in flowing shape, but there are undersleeves of black chiffon. The belt is made of a twist of rich black satin ribbon with a bow.

To show just what a hold the Eugenie flounces have taken I will tell of one more such gown and, behold, the price is $1,000! The foundation of this creation is of crisp white taffeta and it is made with a train quite half a yard long, although it is intended for an outdoor costume. Around the trailing portion there are four flounces, each scarcely an inch longer than the other. This is done to give the proper fluffy lightness to that part. All the rest of the flounces, and there are 13 of them, are three inches deep and overlap. At the left side these are so arranged that one is draped over the last and so on to the top, which makes a very novel effect. Each flounce has two rows of very fine black chantilly lace about half an inch wide gathered to the chiffon flounces. Did I say the flounces are all of chiffon? They are. The blouse waist is of finely plaited chiffon over the taffeta, and over this is a bolero of black lace and still above this is a trimming of white point. The sleeves come but to the elbow, and there are two deep ruffles of white plaited chiffon some six or eight inches deep, cut up on the top, to show the whole of the arm to the bend of the elbow. The high stock is of white, with a little black chenille to finish it. At the belt line there is a large and rich ornament of black chenille and black pearl beads and this hangs down to the knees. Another and smaller one was put upon the waist. This dress is so really elegant that it has seemed a duty to describe it in detail so that any lady may have one like it, or at least modeled after the original design. In any of the light white goods it would be quite as pretty, although not so costly. In the soft pineapple linen it would be extremely dainty. Any very soft stuff would be suitable. The woman who has flounces to the waist now is in the latest style for thin stuffs, and she who has a little postilion tail to the basque or blouse of her tailor suit is equally stylish.

MOIRE DINNER DRESS.

After many days the beautiful moire gowns for grand occasions and ceremonious functions have been revived. In the illustration is a representation of a superb moire in a silvery blue so rich that it folds into forms to drive an artist mad with desire to paint it. This is overlaid with a splendid lace and silver applique. The waist is in the inevitable blouse shape, but cut pompadour shape in the neck, and this part is ornamented with straps of velvet ribbon to match the deepest shade in the moire. The sleeves are almost as old as the hills. The skirt, like all skirts intended for evening wear, is quite long and is deeply ornamented with the applique.

An Obstacle.
She—I can only be a sister to you, Henry.
He (with repressed emotion)—How old are you?
She (curiously)—Twenty, last October.
He—Well, you can't be a sister to me. I've got a sister at home who was 20 last August, and you see that sort of relationship won't work. Try something else.—London Tit-Bits.

Their Weak Points.
Bass—I got some eggs of Mrs. Fowler for 15 cents a dozen. I praised her baby, you know.
Fogg—That's nothing. I bought some of Fowler himself for 12 cents. I spoke in admiration of his dog.—What to Eat.

Eyes Are Accommodating

They'll see—maybe quite well, through a pair of glasses you pick from a basket—but nature beats a sheriff in forcing a collection of her debts—and fitting one's self to glasses is risky—terribly risky—the assurance we give you of furnishing the proper glasses places you beyond all risk.

SITE FOR A LIBRARY

ALSO FOR CITY HALL

BOTH QUESTIONS WILL BE SETTLED BY THE COUNCIL.

East Side Gets the Library and the West Side the City Hall—Compromise on the Vexed Matter is in Sight—Shrewd Guess as to What Will Be Done.

The chief topic of interest on the streets today has concerned the action which the common council will take this evening when the report of the committee appointed to confer with the library board committee is presented. Persistent rumors are afloat and while every one thinks he knows what is to be done tonight everyone will breathe easier after the vote has been taken.

Members of the council committee have agreed to make no statements before the committee's report is made, but they find considerable amusement in the fact that some of the rumors claiming to come from the inside were in circulation before the committee held its meeting.

At the best it is quite a game of guess and The Gazette feels inclined to take a hand. It is safe to say that the committee has endeavored to find some solution to the site difficulty which will meet with general approbation. It is also certain that so long as Rock river runs through our city some sort of a compromise must be effected. The library board has selected an East Side site. The majority in the council being from the West Side could defeat any such proposition if the river was kept as the main issue.

Janesville needs a city hall quite as much as it needs a library building. If each side of the river is given a public building at about the same time certainly no one could be ungracious enough to show selfish disapproval.

Therefore The Gazette predicts that if the council purchases a site for the library tonight it will also purchase a site for the city hall.

Naturally out of courtesy to the library board, the choice of the East Side site for the library will be sustained and that will place the city hall on the West Side. One of the sites offered for the library building will be chosen for the city hall and all things considered, the Bowles property will doubtless be selected.

Should the council take this double action, as it undoubtedly will, it should be endorsed by the public in general. Bonds will probably be issued and the argument over the library site will have resulted in an additional benefit to the city—the hastening of a city hall. This has been a long felt want and will be welcomed by the people, not only as a diplomatic move but as one which is for the public good. In no other way could the council settle the question before them in a way which would give such general satisfaction.

CANNING FACTORY

RENTS A BIG FARM

Fisher Place in the Town of Janesville, Will Be Planted with Certain Vegetables They Need.

The members of the canning factory company have closed a deal with E. W. Fisher of the town of Janesville for the use of one hundred and fifty acres of his farm for the coming season.

They will plant the land with cabbages, cucumbers, sweet corn and garden truck. They will put in twenty-five acres of cucumbers, fifty acres of sweet corn and the balance will be cabbages and truck.

A car load of horses in charge of Charles Schmermyer and Charles Schumacher of Cassville arrived in the city last evening and will be used by the company for work on their farm.

Mr. Hohenadel will be kept busy for the next ninety days getting the building erected and the machinery in place. It will be all that they can do to get the plant in readiness for handling the season's crop. They can get the buildings up in plenty of time, but getting the machinery in running order is another proposition.

They are confident however that by hard work they can have everything in running order by the time the first crop is harvested. All they need now is a sufficient number of acres of truck to keep the plant going. They would have liked to have secured a farm of three hundred acres but on account of the lateness of the season the most of the farmers have made arrangements for the use of their farms this year.

The State Bank of Orfordville, Wis., is responsible and asks a careful scrutiny as to its promoters. Is recommended by four governors and many banks. Pays four per cent. on six months and 5 per cent. on 12 months time deposits.

GREAT STRIKE IS Averted

Union Men Are All to Be Re-instated.

NO DISTINCTIONS ALLOWED.

Employees of the American Sheet Steel Company and of the Big Steel Combine Secure the Terms Asked by Mechanics at McKeesport.

Pittsburg, April 19.—There will be no general strike of the 20,000 employees of the American Sheet Steel Company or the 200,000 men of the United States Steel Corporation, at least for the present. At a conference between members of the advisory board of the Amalgamated Association Iron, Steel and Tin workers and John Jarrett, representing the labor bureau of the sheet combine, the latter agreed to take back all the men discharged because of having joined the union. A contract was drawn up by the amalgamated officials calling off the strike and agreeing to allow the Woods mills at McKeesport to resume operations next Monday. The men are jubilant over the settlement. The advisory board went into session in the forenoon. Mr. Jarrett was at the meeting and delivered another address. He first asked for ten days to arrange matters with the officials of the sheet combine, the strikers to go to work in the meantime, but the labor union officials refused to agree to this. Then he asked for three days, and offered to have all the men except George Holloway, the president of the Enterprise Lodge of McKeesport, reinstated. "Holloway goes up or down with the others," said President Shaffer; "there must be no distinctions. Take back all or none."

Agreement is Finally Signed. Mr. Jarrett conferred by telephone with officials of the sheet combine in New York. He returned to the advisory board meeting in the afternoon and the argument was resumed. The meeting lasted until after 8 o'clock. At its conclusion President Shaffer gave out the following:

"We have discovered, after a careful examination of the points at issue, that, as usual, mistakes and misunderstanding underlie the troubles at McKeesport, and we reach the conclusion that it will be to the advantage of all parties concerned to start the Woods mill with the other employees on next Monday morning, April 22, 1901, and it is further agreed that the contract in reference to working conditions in the mill and scale matters shall be observed until July 1, 1901, and in the meantime Mr. Smith and Mr. Holloway shall have a meeting to adjust any difficulties which may exist between them."

"T. J. SHAFFER, President.
"JOHN WILLIAMS, Secretary.
"For the Amalgamated Association Iron, Steel and Tin Workers.
"JOHN JARRETT,
"For the American Sheet Steel Company."

Glad the Trouble Is Settled. President Shaffer said: "The agreement explains itself. We got what we struck for. When the strike began we made it plain the only settlement that could be agreed to by us would be the reinstatement of every man discharged because he joined the union. The company has agreed to take them back and all will go to work Monday. We could not make any exception in the case of Holloway. I understood that he and P. M. Smith, the general superintendent of the mill, had some personal misunderstanding. We insisted that a matter of this kind should not stand in the way of the welfare of all the others. Holloway goes back with the rest. We have been treated fairly by the sheet company and I am glad the trouble is settled." Mr. Jarrett said he had nothing to say for the company's side beyond what has been stated. He was glad a settlement had been reached and called up the officials of the company in New York telling them of it. President Shaffer notified the strikers in McKeesport by telephone. A meeting of Enterprise Lodge was immediately called. Some of the men paraded the streets in the vicinity of the Woods plant, but were orderly.

Motherhood means either happiness or misery. There is scant happiness for the mother, who pines and weakens brings into the world a weakling babe which she can neither nurse nor nourish. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fits women for motherhood. It strengthens the maternal organism. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and brings refreshing sleep. It makes the birth hour practically painless and gives the mother the nourishment to give her child.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. "Words cannot express how grateful I am for your kind advice and your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. D. B. Barrieks, of Perrow's, Campbell Co., Va. "I feel that it has cured me. I had been in poor health for four years. Suffered greatly with my right side, also with bearing-down pains, and my nerves were in a dreadful state. After using four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I am now well. I am the mother of two children. With the first child I suffered twenty-eight hours, and with the second I used your medicine and was sick only three hours. I believe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to be the best medicine in the world for suffering females. I wish you great success, and hope that God will bless you in your noble work."

Armed Miners Go to Kentucky. Evansville, Ind., April 19.—About 600 coal miners gathered from southern Indiana points left here by steamboat for Eastwood Landing, Ky., to endeavor to close down the Union mines in western Kentucky. The first point to which their attention will be directed is Sebree, which is about two miles from the point of landing. The miners are said to be armed, and go with provisions to last several days. Trouble is feared. A dispatch from Earlinton, Ky., states that preparations are being made at Sebree and other points to handle the invaders, and 100 citizens from different parts of Hopkins County were summoned on the Sheriff's posse.

St. Louis, April 19.—Mrs. R. T. Baudy of 1302 North Taylor avenue found a man under her bed last night, and, grabbing her revolver, which she kept concealed under the mattress, ordered him out. He obeyed sheepishly and offered no resistance while the brave woman held him at bay. Mrs. Baudy's 7-year-old son, who had accompanied his mother to the room, was sent out to get the neighbors and the police. While the child was gone the burglar made a dash for liberty and escaped. Mrs. Baudy made no effort to shoot, saying she did not want to kill anyone.

WOULD KILL FOUR RULERS

A Far-Reaching Anarchist Plot Is Revealed.

EXPOSURE OF DEADLY PLANS.

Said to Have Been Laid in Paterson, N. J., with Kaiser, Czar, King and Queen of Italy and Count of Turin Marked to Die.

Buenos Ayres, April 19.—Police of the town of Rosario, in the province of Santa Fe, have seized papers which prove that a plot against the lives of the emperor of Germany, the czar of Russia, the king and queen of Italy, and the count of Turin was recently laid in Paterson, N. J. Investigation was begun here on the receipt of dispatches from Berlin announcing that the police of that city had discovered a plot against the life of Emperor William. These dispatches stated that anarchists from Argentina were the moving spirits in the plan and that one named Romagnoli had been arrested.

The movements of Romagnoli, who recently left this country, were traced by government agents. It was found that he came from Rosario, where an anarchist society has long been in existence. The police of that town immediately began an investigation and finally made a raid upon the quarters of some of the most prominent anarchists. Important papers bearing upon the organization of the society were seized. These showed that Romagnoli acted upon direct orders from Paterson. A letter was sent to him telling him that he had been chosen by lot to kill the German emperor and instructing him to go immediately to Berlin. He left Rosario soon afterward and sailed from this port.

Arrested in Germany. He did not go directly to Germany, but to Rome, where it is supposed he communicated with Italian anarchists. He then went to New York, evidently to receive final instructions from the leaders in Paterson. He came to Argentina again and held communication with his friends, and then sailed for Germany, where he was arrested before he could execute his orders. Whether any specific action has been taken to carry out the resolution of the Paterson society for the assassination of the czar of Russia and the Italian rulers, the police will not say. The German, Italian and Russian legations, however, have been placed in possession of the facts.

Doubted in Paterson.

New York, April 19.—Pedro Esteve, editor of La Question Sociale, the organ of the socialistic-anarchistic group of Paterson, and a recognized leader, denied last night all knowledge of a Paterson anarchist named Romagnoli. He averred that if any such plot as is reported from Buenos Ayres had been hatched in Paterson or its vicinity he could hardly fail to have heard of it. "We do not draw lots to determine who shall kill kings or emperors nowadays," said he, "although that kind of thing may have been done thirty or forty years ago." The count of Turin, who is mentioned as having been marked for assassination, together with the new king of Italy and his wife, is the heir apparent to the Italian throne, the king being childless.

For Over Fifty Years. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children while teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain caused by wind colic, and is the best remedy for all the troubles of a baby. Sold by druggists throughout the whole world.

Assassin Shoots Farmer.

Minerva, O., April 19.—At 5 a. m. Andrew Miller, a wealthy farmer, living a half-mile east of town, was shot three times by a man, who escaped. Miller is sinking fast and will hardly live longer than a few hours. No motive can be attributed for the deed, unless an old grudge. Miller stated a few minutes after the deed was committed that he believed he knew his assailant. The Miller farm joins President McKinley's farm in the northwest corner of Columbiana county.

$25 Reward. The City of Janesville will pay twenty-five dollars reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who turned in the alarm of fire from alarm box 42 at 7:38 o'clock on Sunday evening, April 14, 1901.

TUG MEN DID THEIR DUTY.

Exonerated from Charges in Connection with Hoboken Fire.

New York, April 19.—A committee of the Tow-Boat association of this city has just made a report to the main body of an investigation the committee made into certain charges which were circulated shortly after the steamship fire at Hoboken, in June last, to the effect that the tugboat men (or tug men) of this port neglected to save life in that the ships Saale, Bremen and Main were not promptly towed from their piers and the tugs refused requests to render assistance unless they were paid, and refused to heed the appeals of those in the water. The committee in its report says it was impossible for the tugs to tow either the Saale or the Bremen from the piers at which they lay on account of the flames and that the tugs devoted their energy to saving life on these ships. The report says that at pier No. 2 lay the Main and the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, and that Capt. Muller, the superintendent, directed all tugs to come to his assistance and save the latter ship, the Main being ablaze at that time. The charges against the tugmen were made by the Maritime court at Bremerhaven and the committee says it believes that the decision of this court, founded as it was on expert testimony, to be entirely erroneous and of no account or value.

HUMOROUS TIPSTERS.

Quick Returns For Bright Ideas.
The Other Half of the Cartoonist.
Cartoonists' ideas for funny pictures often run low. They say that their hands do not lose their cunning, but that their minds refuse to frame comical scenes and situations. They must turn out a certain amount of glib, however, and on such occasions have recourse to the humorous tipster. He is usually a literary free lance, with some knack of humor. The most successful are those who contribute funny paragraphs, stories and sketches to the humorous weeklies or the humorous columns of daily papers and magazines.

In New York there are at least 50, of whom probably one-half sell tips or enter into business relations with the artists. Where tips are sold they bring from $1 to $3, and they average $2 each. It is generally a cash transaction. Equally common is the practice of going halves upon an idea. In this case the tipster makes a sketch and on a separate sheet writes the reading matter to accompany it. The artist thereupon makes a finished picture. If the publication uses black and white and no color, the drawing is purchased and the artist absolved of further responsibility. If, however, the publication has a color press, the artist is often called upon to oversee the press arrangements as to the distribution of the various inks. In the former case the artist and tipster equally divide the price paid. In the latter the artist receives a somewhat larger share.

The business pays fairly well so far as the time consumed is concerned. A man with grotesque fancies will often conceive a dozen tips in an hour, but it may be several days or weeks before he can do it again. The most successful tipster is said to clear $1,000 a year. An ordinary tipster makes one-half or one-third as much. During a political campaign there is a big demand for cartoons, and prices go higher. Tips for these cartoons will often bring $5 and $10, and when they have been worked out upon the partnership principle they have netted as high as $100.—New York Post.

POND'S EXTRACT

There is only ONE POND'S EXTRACT, and everybody knows its purity, strength and great medicinal value. Don't take the weak, watery Witch Hazel preparations represented to be "the same as" POND'S EXTRACT.
